

NextLevel Galerie

A newcomer to Design Miami/Basel, Paris gallery NextLevel makes its debut with a solo show of Franco-Israeli-Swedish designer Bina Baitel, whose interest in utilizing space and fulfilling function reflects her strong training as an architect. However, it's her innovative use of material and bold vision that make Baitel a designer to watch.

A side table from the furniture series Zarab, seen here, is derived from mazrab which is the French word for mattress.

Galerie Kreo

Galerie Kreo will debut Hella Jongerius' Niebla table, seen here. The name is Spanish for clouds, which refers to the disappearing solid lacquer into the wood. It is an edition of eight pieces.

32 CULTURED

COURTESY OF NEXTLEVEL GALLERY; COURTESY OF LOUISA GUINNESS GALLERY; COURTESY OF THE ARTIST AND PROJECT; PHOTO BY EVA FELDAMP